The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) announced the availability of funding for the Landmarks of American History and Culture: Workshops for School Teachers program (Catalog for Federal Domestic Assistance number: 45.163)
. The purpose of this program is to support a series of one-week residence-based workshops for a national audience of K-12 educators. NEH Landmarks of American History and Culture Workshops use historic sites to address central themes and issues in American history, government, literature, art, music and related subjects in the humanities.
The application deadline is March 5, 2013.

Eligible applicants include state and local governments, institutions of higher education and other non-profit organizations.
To request an application package, visit www.grants.gov
. For further information, contact Workshops for School Teachers, Division of Education Programs, National Endowment for the Humanities, Room 302, 1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20506, 202-606-8380, landmarks@neh.gov
.