The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) is now providing eligible post-9/11 era veterans with electronic Gold Cards that provide increased access to reemployment and case management services through all One-Stop Career Centers. The DOL estimates that approximately 205,000 post-9/11 era veterans are currently eligible to participate in the program. You may access more information on this initiative and locate a One-Stop Career Center near you online at www.dol.gov/vets/goldcard.html

The DOL has also announced the My Next Move for Veterans website, which enables users to enter their prior military experience and search for information on civilian career opportunities, including job openings and apprenticeships, and related education and training programs. You may access more information on this initiative online at www.mynextmove.org/vets/ .

Please share the above information with former service members and contact my office if you have any questions.
